On the second day in the morning, a short motivational meeting has been conducted by President Mr. Santosh K Agrawal with the players, coaches, and referees. After that morning training session started. At 3 o'clock, our referees attended a referee seminar, coaches witnessed draws, players went for practice matches where all the players made their best out of which Omkar Singh Rathor made remarkable performance in which he won the round and WAKO India President Santosh K Agrawal gave cash prize of 5000 INR as token of appreciation on his historical victory in Asian Championship. All the players practiced so well that they gave breath taking performance in all individual fights.
