The Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports of the Government of India has graciously renewed WAKO India Kickboxing Federation's yearly recognition for the year 2022, the organization says with great pride. This would undoubtedly enhance and promote kickboxing at the grassroots level in India and let all of our kickboxing competitors, officials, and coaches to benefit from its recognition.

Many thanks to the Indian government's Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. Salutations to the entire kickboxing community.

May I wish all my friends a Very Happy New Year 2023. Let us be more optimistic & our clear vision, perseverance backed by definitive plans, leadership, confidence we take this journey of WAKO India family to exceptional heights.

I have absolute optimism to achieve our goal in Kickboxing sport as I am moving forward with constructive people who within their inner hearts want to uplift these sports to new heights for our athletes and members and to gain national and international recognition.

For the academic year 2023–2024, the WAKO India “Athlete Committee” has been established. Athlete commissions are crucial in addressing violations of human rights in sports. They assist athletes in developing their sporting careers and give them support.

"Arise! Awake! and don't stop till the end result is achieved.

The subject of the 2023 National Youth Festival is "Viksit Yuva Viksit Bharat," which translates to "If Indian youth is led on a path of development, then only India may be developed."

Every year on January 12th, National Youth Day 2023 is observed to honour Swami Vivekananda's birth anniversary.

The poster is black with white and red text. At the top left are the WAKO India and WAKO World Association logos. The central text reads: "Get up / Wake up / And work until you achieve your goals!! / Nothing is IMPOSSIBLE". Below this is "Wake up INDIA and make world wake up !!" and "When life gives you lemon make lemonade". The main title is "National Youth Day" in white and red, with "12TH January" below it. On the right is a white silhouette of Swami Vivekananda wearing a turban. At the bottom, the name "Santosh Kumar Agrawal" is written in white, followed by his titles: "President - WAKO India Kickboxing Federation", "Founder & Secretary General - Haryana Kickboxing Association (Regd.)", and "Member - WAKO Technical Committee".

It isn't always simple, but it is always worthwhile.
Resuming our training for WAKO India Kickboxing is time!
