WAKO India President, Mr Santosh K Agrawal acknowledged the crowd at the Opening Ceremony of the Championship. He motivated the young fighters, officials, coaches and other associated partners whose continuous efforts for uplifting the Kickboxing Federation surely goes for an applaud. He valued everyone who has supported the event, as the championship was rescheduled from June to July due to some unwanted circumstances at a national level. Moreover, he celebrated our athlete's performance in the last international event - Uzbekistan Open 2 in which the WAKO India team won 15 medals altogether. One of our Junior athletes Ms Monal Kukreja displayed phenomenal play and made a good use out of this platform to make our nation proud, she not only won back-to-back matches but also won hearts. She was felicitated by the WAKO India Team. WAKO India executive board members, i.e., Mr Kartika Dakua, Mr Sanjay Yadav, Mr Abhishek Jain with other member affiliates were present in the ceremony. The opening of the event was concluded with the cultural program.
