If it's Holi, introduce yourself to a stranger today. Today is Holi, so hold your friend in your eyelids. To the antagonisms of a year full of mistakes. Today is Holi, embrace your enemy!

Holi, also known as the festival of colors, the festival of spring and the festival of love, is one of the most popular and important festivals in Hinduism. It celebrates the eternal and divine love of Lord Radha and Krishna. The day also marks the victory of good over evil, as it commemorates the victory of Lord Vishnu in the form of Narasimha Narayana over Hiranyakashipu.

WAKO India Kickboxing Federation is proud to be associated with the recently concluded inter-college kickboxing championship for Maharaja Suhaldev University, which was held on 04th March 2023. Around 70 participants from Azamgardh, Mau, Baliya, 18 colleges participated, Rishi Ramnaresh krishak PG College got the overall winner title, D C S K pg College Mau runner-up, Dav Pg College Azamgardh secured the third position.

Coach and Chief Selector Mr. Md Abdul Salam Khan(Maharaja Suhaldev University Azamgardh) Mr. Nilesh Yadav(Mau), Mr. Nizamuddin Rayeen(Ghazipur), Mr. Ravi Singh, (Mau) etc. were present in the jury. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the winners and commend all the participants for their outstanding performances. WAKO India kickboxing federation is committed to promoting and fostering the growth of kickboxing in India, and we are delighted to be associated with such events that promote the sport's spirit and excellence.

Happy Women's Day to all the Incredible Women! who are associated with WAKO India, as a player, coach, or official. WAKO India highly oblige that you support our lovely sports kickboxing. Best Wishes to all of you for your future.

WAKO India Kickboxing Federation organized a fantastic self-defense training program through kickboxing on the occasion of International Women's Day at Uttarakhand University. The Event witnessed the participation of 70 students from the law college. The program was conducted by our esteemed team India coach and Head Coach of Uttarakhand Kickboxing, a prominent member of the WAKO India coaching committee, RAKSHITHA GOWDA G M. We were honored to have the presence of Prof. Rajesh Bahuguna, Dean Law College Dehradun, and Pro Vice-Chancellor - Uttarakhand University, and Prof. (Dr.) Abhishek Joshi, Executive Director, SA & IT Services, who graced the occasion with their presence. The program was also addressed by Raja Shekar, a trainer and speaker from the WAKO technical committee, Capt. Balbir Singh Rawat, Tehri Garhwal District, Lieutenant Yashwant Singh, Rawat Pauri Garhwal, and V Veera Bharathi, a kickboxing instructor and national medalist. The program was organized by the Women Cell of the University, headed by Dr. Poonam Rawath, along with Dr. V Bhuvaneshwari and Dr. Sandhya Verma. The self-defense training program aimed to empower and educate women about the importance of self-defense and kickboxing, and the event proved to be a huge success. We appreciate the participation of all the students and are grateful for the support extended by the University authorities.

“The best protection any woman can have... is courage.” We celebrated the International Women’s Day on behalf of @wakoindia #tamilnadu to Encourage and Motivate our Female Kickboxers in Tamil Nadu during the camp with the Chief guest Mrs. VaraLakshmi Madhusudhanan MLA., Guest of Honour Dr. @arathi.arun.powerlifter Chairman, Women Committee and other Officials. Self-defense not only allows to tangibly defend themselves against physical attacks, it also sparks various benefits to them in everyday life. WAKO India Gujarat got the privilege to give training to the Central Government officers of National Academy of Customs, Indirect Taxes and Narcotics department at GST Bhavan, Vadodara. These self-defence training sessions are important part of their curriculum.

Self-Defense training is one of the most needed and must for every woman's to-do list. In the crime world, self-defense training is suggested, so that the women can resist any kind of sexual assault as well as random attacks. WAKO India West Bengal "Baghini Self Defense Training with Bidhannagar Police.

Following the immense success of Baghini phase 1 & 2 with Siliguri Police, Mr. Gaurav Sharma, Police Commissioner, has again Provided this golden opportunity to bring out the tigress in each and every woman. Thanks to Bidhannagar City Police. The self-defense program conducted by Monalisa Roy, Chairman - of Women and Sports committee, West Bengal Sports Kickboxing Association.
