Shivam set for Bangkok battle

Our Sports Reporter
INDORE

From the training mats of Madhya Pradesh to one of the world's most celebrated combat arenas, Shivam Chawrasia is ready for the biggest fight of his career.

The Indore kickboxer has been selected to represent India at the KATPRO K-1 Championship, scheduled to be held at the legendary Lumpinee Stadium in Bangkok, Thailand, on July 27. Significantly, Chawrasia will be the only Indian fighter competing in the prestigious international professional tournament.

Representing the Amateur Sports Kickboxing Association of Madhya Pradesh, Shivam will take on Thailand's Pawunna Theeraphat in the 54kg K-1 professional bout, a contest expected to test the young Indian against one of the sport's toughest fighting nations.

A Date with Destiny

Competing at Lumpinee Stadium, regarded as the spiritual home of Muay Thai and one of the world's most iconic combat sports venues, is considered a dream for professional kickboxers.

Shivam's selection reflects his rapid rise in Indian kickboxing and offers him an opportunity to showcase his skills on one of the sport's grandest international stages.

The Indian contingent will travel under the leadership of Santosh Kumar Agarwal, President of the WAKO India Kickboxing Federation, while Ashutosh Dadhich, General Secretary of the Amateur Sports Kickboxing Association of Madhya Pradesh, will accompany the team as coach.

The KATPRO Championship is supported by WAKO and other international kickboxing organisations, attracting top professional fighters from across the globe.
