As part of the 12th National Kickboxing High Performance Training Camp, a highly informative and inspiring Educational Seminar Session was conducted to enhance the overall development of athletes beyond physical training

Dr. Suyash Tukaram Vanmore, Founder, FnH's Foot Clinic delivered an insightful seminar on the topic "Injury Prevention & Management in Kickboxing", where he explained the importance of healthy lifestyle habits for improving athletic performance and recovery. His session motivated young athletes to understand that true champions are built not only through hard training but also through disciplined eating habits and self-care.

One of the major highlights of the camp was the presence of internationally renowned coaches — Mr. Miodrag Jotic and Mr. Emanuele Bozzolani. Their valuable guidance and professional approach elevated the standard of training throughout the camp. Daily morning and evening sessions were conducted with great discipline and intensity, where athletes received both theoretical and practical knowledge related to modern kickboxing techniques, tactical preparation, physical conditioning, ring movement, mental strength, and international competition standards. Their mentorship inspired the participants to develop a more professional attitude towards the sport and encouraged them to strive for excellence at national and international levels.

The camp was carefully designed to provide a balanced combination of classroom-based theoretical education and high-intensity practical training. Athletes were educated on technical rules, strategic planning, sports discipline, recovery methods, performance improvement, and professional sports ethics. The practical sessions focused on skill development, sparring techniques, endurance training, tactical execution, and real-time performance analysis. This integrated learning environment helped athletes gain deeper knowledge and improve their confidence, discipline, and competitive mindset.
